Spotlight

Another Language Performing Arts Company invites you to Duel•Ality, an upcoming telematic cinema project created and performed by Company Directors Elizabeth and Jimmy Miklavcic. This original work will deal with the concepts of relationships and personal duality.

One definition of duality is: consisting of two parts or elements or having two like parts, having a double character or nature. It is also a view of human beings consisting of two irreducible elements as matter and spirit. In mind/body dualism it is maintained, for different reasons, that people's "intelligence" (a faculty of the mind or soul) cannot be identified with, or explained in terms of, their physical body. In mathematics duality is defined as symmetry within a mathematical system such that a theorem remains valid if certain objects, relations, or operations are interchanged, as the interchange of points and lines in a plane in projective geometry.

Duel•Ality will explore relationships and the many sides of the interactions that the two characters Duel, played by

This telematic work will focus on the relationship between two people and the way this duo encounters and functions in this technological world. It, also, will look at the relationship of man and woman, of human to computer, of software to hardware, the relationship of live creativity and projected elements and the relationship between creative elements and how the audience perceives them.

The script developed by Elizabeth and Jimmy Miklavcic will include a series of monologues and dialogues between Duel and Ality as they wrestle with each other and their expressions, using their computers as extensions
