Jimmy and Elizabeth Miklavcic performing The Two for the Chicago telematic project Daisy Chain.

Another Language participated in an Anarchic Performance event held Friday, May 13th. It consisted of an interconnected series of internet performances that was featured at Antena Gallery in Chicago, Illinois and simultaneously across the Internet. Participating performers incorporated one or more other performances in the series via projection, monitor, laptop or audio in the performance space. Participants were able to select from any other performance in the series, which remained open to incorporation through reactions, visual amalgamation using projections and the mixing of audio. Improvisation was a primary element of Daisy Chain. The event was curated by Adam Trowbridge and Jessica Westbrook. Another Language Performing Arts Company directors Elizabeth and Jimmy Miklavcic performed an improvisational duet The Two throughout the four hour durational performance event.

Elizabeth Miklavcic presenting Visual Scripting research for the Utah Academy of Sciences, Arts and Letters

Another Language Performing Arts Company presented Visual Scripting for the Utah Academy of Sciences, Arts and Letters Spring conference held April 8, 2011 in Salt Lake City, Utah at the Salt Lake Community College South Jordan Campus. Visual Scripting, written by Elizabeth Miklavcic focuses on creating multimedia scripts for the purposes of documentation and re-staging of complex telematic works. Visual Scripting combines text, auditory and visual files specifically to provide complete documentation of a new original multimedia work and to provide a foundation for interpretation by a new cast; not for the purposes of rote restaging, but for use as a springboard to move beyond the interpretations of the original cast toward finding deeper creative levels within the work. The original 2007 paper was revised by the May 15th submission deadline for publication in the Journal of the Utah Academy of Sciences, Arts and Letters.
